Welcome to our website

Our English language courses take place in the best location in Ireland. Our school is situated only 35 minutes from Dublin city centre. All the amenities and attractions of Ireland's vibrant capital city are on your doorstep. You can visit museums, castles and monuments or learn about famous writers like James Joyce, Oscar Wilde and Samuel Beckett. Trinity College houses the famous book of Kells and in St. Patrick's Cathedral you can trace the footsteps of Jonathan Swift, another famous Irish writer.

There is a myriad of other things to do from browsing the unusual shops in Temple Bar - Dublin's bohemian quarter – to finding out about Ireland's unique black beer in the Guinness Store House. You can take an open-top bus tour of the city or see Dublin's unique landmark buildings from the water on a Viking Splash tour, or a Liffey Voyage.

Travel to the city centre couldn't be easier. The DART line runs directly from Bray to Dublin and trains come every 15 minutes. The scenery on the journey to the city is incredible.

The quality of English spoken in the South Dublin – North Wicklow area is the clearest in the world. It is the voice of Irish broadcasting. Students have no problems understanding their teachers and host families and they make excellent progress as a result.
